

LETTER OF MOTIVATION

I wish to introduce myself as Amey Chandramani Agle from India, a prospective student aspiring to pursue a Master of International Management from The Dresden University of Applied Sciences.

Academically, I have always performed well, and following that I completed my Masters of Management Studies from The University of Mumbai with a whopping score of 9.23 CGPA (German Grade: 1.38). An internship was also part of my master's studies, completed at Growth Arrow as an Equity Research Analyst. Additionally, I went through the IELTS test with an overall score of 7.0 including Listening: 7.5, Writing: 7.0, Speaking: 6.5, and Reading: 6.0.

After completing my master's studies, I started my professional career as an Assistant Manager at Kotak Mahindra Bank Ltd where I gained valuable experience in the professional world including role-specific experience. I worked there for more than a year.

Working as an Assistant Manager, I realized that having a deeper knowledge of Management with an International Perspective is essential for this interconnected world. Also, I wish to gain knowledge of the global market, cultural nuances, and ethical considerations. It is very important to navigate the complexities of international business as I wish to enhance my career prospects also. Considering these qualities, when I was searching for the preferred course that can match my requirements, I found the field of International Management. These are some prime aspects that convinced me to go for the double master's studies.

Researching the details of master's degree course options is available at German institutions. I found that for admission to respective master's degree course options in International Management at some institutions. But The Dresden University of Applied Sciences has attracted me most with its high education standards and good training to develop professional skills through career-oriented programs. The coursework is designed to offer students experience as they are trained to work on real projects and prepare them for employment. There are a wide range of degree programs to choose from which always align to convert our interest into a career. I feel that your university is the right place to embark upon my graduate study. I am confident that I will live up to the high academic standards of your university supported by your able academic guidance.

Germany is renowned for its world-class education system, especially in the field of finance and entrepreneurship. I am particularly attracted to the innovative and practical approach to learning, which is evident in the curriculum of the International University of Applied Sciences. The emphasis on research and the opportunity to collaborate with leading experts in the field are compelling reasons for my choice of Germany as my study destination.

This master's program will provide me with extensive knowledge in all of its subject-specific areas with an international perspective, and it will help me to gain a deep understanding in all the areas that I learned in my master's studies. I will also enhance my soft skills like critical thinking, Leadership Skills, Communication, etc. My internship and projects during my studies will help me to work on real-world challenges, which will be very useful in my future career. I hope to gain all the necessary knowledge and skills that are essential to start my professional career again with a higher designation

I was always eager to pursue graduate studies in a highly advanced learning environment, such as the programs offered by your university. If I am fortunate enough to join the International Management course at your institution, I believe it would be one of the most significant stepping stones for my career pursuits.

Amey Chandramani Agle, India