

Statement of Purpose

My name is Daya Shankar, Yadav the chance to apply for the Master program of M.A. International Management at SRH Berlin University of Applied Sciences makes me quite happy.

Academic and Professional

Under the Central Board of Secondary Education, New Delhi, India, I finished my classes tenth and twelve in 2019 and 2021. Currently I have completed my Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) program at Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak, India. Over my studies, I have developed a thorough awareness of business concepts including regulations, management, communication, and corporate organization. Extracurricular events and different training programs have further boosted my academic path. Having finished courses in stock market basics and digital marketing, I have expanded my knowledge and abilities in both fields.

From October 2023 to March 2024, my career experience is as an SEO Executive at Thaver Tech Pvt. LTD., India. In this capacity, I created high-quality SEO material, performed on-site and off-site research on web SEO competitiveness using Google Analytics, and created performance reports. This knowledge of digital marketing techniques and practical abilities has come in really handy. I also took part in Kotak Securities LTD.'s Financial Literacy program "Kona Kona Shiksha," where I answered 60% on the next question.

Why this Program?

My goal in choosing to study an M.A. in International Management was to get a thorough awareness of worldwide corporate operations, leadership styles, and cross-cultural management. This program provides chances to become knowledgeable in important fields such strategic management, global supply chains management, and international marketing. Emphasizing practical uses will enable me to develop the abilities to negotiate challenging worldwide markets. Improved leadership skills, mastery of handling diverse teams, and the capacity to make data-driven business decisions are among the learning results I hope for. My ultimate aim is to assume leadership positions in multinational companies, therefore fostering sustainable business practices and helping to drive world corporate development and innovation.

Why SRH?

SRH Berlin appeals especially to me because of its active student community and great academic standing. Renowned among Germany's biggest and most well-known universities for their strict academic standards and high caliber instruction is SRH Berlin. The campus is active with clubs, events, and cultural activities that I think will enhance my whole educational process. Being a student at SRH Berlin would be a great honor since I may use its first-rate academic facilities and varied student population.

Why Germany?

My desire has always been of studying in Germany. Germany's great research and innovation emphasis and first-rate educational system have convinced me to apply here. The field of education in Germany is significantly better than in other countries, hence I wish to remain here. I wish to be among the rich German culture, diversity, and good exposure. Germany's master's program provides several benefits, including a thorough curriculum and strong industry contacts; hence I desire to study there. Studying in Germany will help me improve personally and professionally. I think the country's focus on quality education and research will present me the finest chances to reach my objectives.

Summary

Having closely examined the Master's program I am applying for, I have come to the conclusion that the course exactly fits my aims and so, I would like to obtain an opportunity to attend the SRH Berlin University of Applied Sciences. With any luck, my letter gets a positive response.

I value your giving my application some thought. The idea of helping to contribute to and learning from the active scholarly community at SRH Berlin excites me.

Really,

Daya Shankar, Yadav
