

Statement Of Purpose

I am Omkar Maruti, Kamble and I am writing to you to let you know that I am interested in pursue a Master's in General Management at PFH. Having graduated from the University of Mumbai with a degree in commerce, I am keen to advance my knowledge and abilities in the field of management since I think it will be essential to the development of companies and industries in the years to come.

Academically, I finished my Bachelor of Commerce at the University of Mumbai with a CGPI of 7.55, (German grade of 2.2). I studied a wide range of topics including Financial Accounting & Auditing, Business Development, Business Economics, Direct & Indirect Taxation, Business Communication, and Advertising. I completed 15 years of English-medium education successfully shows my language ability.

Apart from my intellectual success, many careers and internships have given me invaluable experience. My interests are trade, travel, and photography, which have helped me to grow to have a varied personality. These pursuits have helped me to appreciate the need of patience, observation, and analytical abilities qualities necessary for a successful career in international business and economics.

Why General Management? The extensive curriculum of the PFH General Management program, which includes subjects like marketing, finance, strategic management, and human resources, is what really appeals to me about it. Studying subjects like international business and strategic management excites me since they will teach me the information and abilities I need to successfully negotiate the challenges of the complicated global business landscape. Through this program, I hope to get the technical knowledge and people skills I need to be a valuable member of any organization I eventually join. This education will, in my opinion, equip me with the economically know-how and social skills required to handle problems and create original ideas. Through the learning results of this program policy knowledge and interpersonal skills I hope to develop both personally and professionally. This training will, in my opinion, equip me with both professionally and interpersonal abilities, therefore enabling me to advance both personally and professionally.

Why Germany? I wish to study in Germany because I think their educational system provides a special blend of knowledge from both theory and experience. The excellent educational system and exposure to a wide range of cultures and viewpoints are the main reasons I intend to remain in Germany. I'd like to have a taste of the sophisticated, efficient, and inventive German culture. I think that because I will have the chance to engage with professors and students from all backgrounds, studying in Germany will aid in my professional and personal development. German educational institutions place a lot of focus on research and development, which really interests me because it reflects my desire to always learn and get better. With Germany's educational system, I hope to develop personally and professionally alike. Discovering Germany's rich cultural and historical history will enhance my educational process. Immersion in Germany's rich cultural and historical legacy will help me tremendously in my academics and personal growth since I believe it will be rather important. The chance to be part of a society that celebrates creativity and brilliance and to learn from the finest brains in the area excites me especially Why PFH? PFH sets itself apart by placing a strong focus on both practical education and global recognition. The curriculum of the institution strives to give students practical application in real-world scenarios in addition to theoretical understanding. The small class sizes, which provide individualized attention from professors with substantial professional expertise, are impressive. This will set me up for a successful career by assisting me in understanding difficult topics and providing me with insightful knowledge about the business world. Due to the university's close ties to prestigious organizations, students have more options for networking when they enter the workforce. Studying at PFH will, in my opinion, enable me to expand on my knowledge and abilities in this subject, so enabling me to reach my professional objectives. Although I do not know anyone personally at PFH the outstanding research facilities and academics linked with the program really inspire me. Strong relationships between the institution and these businesses will, in my opinion, offer outstanding internship and employment prospects, so enabling me to progress in my career.

My career goals after graduation are to work as a consultant, project coordinator, or business manager. With so much promise for the future, the Master's program in General Management will enable me to work in a variety of industries. The projects' interdisciplinary nature and the real-world experience I've received from this degree will enable me to develop the critical teamwork and communication skills that are necessary in any professional setting.

I'm positive, that PFH's Master of General Management program is the greatest option for reaching my academic and career objectives. I'm excited about the chance to support and gain from PFH's active academic community. I have no doubt that this school will give me the groundwork I need to launch a lucrative managerial career and have a significant influence on the corporate community.

I appreciate your consideration of my application.
