

Statement Of Purpose

I am Omkar Maruti, Kamble am writing to share how excited I am to pursue an International Business and Leadership program at SRH Dresden's. I have a strong interest in the business world. The variety of topics I studied during my academic career has enhanced my understanding, and I am excited to learn more about leadership and international business.

Academically, I finished my Bachelor of Commerce at the University of Mumbai with a CGPI of 7.55, (German grade of 2.2). I studied a wide range of topics including Financial Accounting & Auditing, Business Development, Business Economics, Direct & Indirect Taxation, Business Communication, and Advertising. I completed 15 years of English-medium education successfully shows my language ability.

Apart from my intellectual success, many careers and internships have given me invaluable experience. My interests are trade, travel, and photography, which have helped me to grow to have a varied personality. These pursuits have helped me to appreciate the need of patience, observation, and analytical abilities qualities necessary for a successful career in international business and economics.

The Reasons for International Business and Leadership - The International Business and Leadership program, in my opinion, will enable me to develop into a corporate leader with substantial influence over the world market. During my undergraduate studies, I was particularly interested in this sector because of classes like Business Development and Advertising. The extracurricular activities I engage in, such attending workshops on business growth, have further stoked my interest in international business. The program's international marketing and strategic management modules especially excite me since they will give me the tools I need to successfully negotiate the complexity of international company environments. This education will, in my opinion, equip me with the economically know-how and social skills required to handle problems and create original ideas. Through the learning results of this program policy knowledge and interpersonal skills I hope to develop both personally and professionally. This training will, in my opinion, equip me with both professionally and interpersonal abilities, therefore enabling me to advance both personally and professionally.

The Reason for SRH Dresden - The commitment of SRH Dresden to excellence and innovation in education drew me in. The university is the perfect location for my academic and professional development because of its cutting-edge resources, experienced faculty, and modern campus. I don't personally know anyone at SRH Dresden, but I have heard great things about the university's encouraging learning atmosphere from former students. The attraction is increased by Dresden itself, which has a thriving student population and a rich cultural history. Dresden has several museums and historic sites that I would like to visit, as this will enhance my trip in general. Studying at SRH Dresden will, in my opinion, enable me to expand on my knowledge and abilities in this subject, so enabling me to reach my professional objectives. Although I do not know anyone personally at SRH Dresden the outstanding research facilities and academics linked with the program really inspire me. Strong relationships between the institution and these businesses will, in my opinion, offer outstanding internship and employment prospects, so enabling me to progress in my career.

Why Germany? I want to study in Germany since it offers a well-known, affordable, and highly regarded educational system. I find German culture to be so inclusive and diverse, and this will allow me a special chance to engage with individuals from many backgrounds. Studying in Germany will benefit me both personally and professionally since it will provide me access to a robust job market and expose me to a fresh, fascinating culture. Germany's focus on innovation and research particularly appeals to me because it will improve my educational experience. Being an international student makes me feel protected and I want to be around in a culturally varied setting. With Germany's educational system, I hope to develop personally and professionally alike. Discovering Germany's rich cultural and historical history will enhance my educational process. Immersion in Germany's rich cultural and historical legacy will help me tremendously in my academics and personal growth since I believe it will be rather important. The chance to be part of a society that celebrates creativity and brilliance and to learn from the finest brains in the area excites me especially.

My professional goals are to work as an international business consultant, global marketing manager, or strategic business analyst after completing the International Business and Leadership program. In order to expand my foreign expertise and support global corporate objectives. I will be ready for these responsibilities and able to make wise judgments in a global corporate environment thanks to the abilities and information I will gain from this program.

I'm sure, that my experience and the all-encompassing education I received at SRH Dresden will help me accomplish my career objectives and significantly impact the world of international business. I am excited to apply my commitment and enthusiasm to your prestigious university and am hoping for a favorable answer to my application.

I appreciate your consideration of my application for the degree in International Business and Leadership.

Regards,
Omkar Maruti, Kamble
