

Letter of Motivation

Born on June 23, 2000, I Shivam, Khangwal an Indian national, I'm writing to show PFH's Master of Business Administration (MBA) program interests me. Coming from Gurgaon, Haryana, India, I have always been driven to learn more so that I may properly influence the corporate world.

Academic and professional

I completed my Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in English from the University of Delhi. Among the courses I took in college were Women's Writing, European Classical Literature, and American Literature, Indian Writing in English, and Literary and Cinema. I finished my initial courses of study like; 10th and 12th from Central Board of Secondary Education, New Delhi, India. I have completed German languages A1, A2, B1, B2 level from Goethe Institute. Also I have cleared my IELTS Test Taken, Overall Band Score: 6.5; CEFR Level: B2, Listening: 6.5, Reading: 6.5, Writing: 6.0, Speaking: 6.0.

Following completion of my bachelor's degree, I started working for Muskan Print Pvt. LTD. in Gurgaon as a CSA Process Analyst (Voice-English) from July 2022 to May 2024. Researching, diagnosing, troubleshooting, and finding answers to fix problems fell to me. Maintaining current knowledge of firm products and services to offer better customer support and service solutions and escalating unsolved problems to suitable internal departments helped me also. This position really sharpened my customer service and problem-solving talents.

Why this Program?

The MBA program at PFH appeals to me because of its extensive course covering both theoretical and pragmatic sides of business administration. The program presents a special mix of courses that will give me a strong grasp of business ideas and their practical relevance. Modules like Strategic Management, Financial Management, and International Business especially pique my curiosity since they will provide me the skills required to succeed in the corporate world.

I would want to convey a story from my former work that inspired me to pursue an MBA. Working on a project needing me to examine market trends and create plans to increase customer involvement throughout my practice, this encounter helped me to see how crucial management and strategic thinking are for realizing corporate success. The MBA program at PFH will enable me to pick up these abilities and equip me for upcoming corporate world problems.

Why PFH?

The great academic status of PFH and the kind of instruction it provides appeal to me. Excellent research facilities and strong intellectual standards are well-known traits of PFH. The university's emphasis on hands-on learning and real-world applications exactly complements my intended professional path. PFH also boasts a varied student body, which will provide me chances to grow from several angles and across cultures.

Modern conveniences abound on PFH's campus, which is situated in a thriving city. The faculty of the institution consists in seasoned experts in various domains. Applying further inspired me as a buddy of mine who attended PFH had a great time. Strong ties to the nearby employment market also help the university to offer great career chances and networking possibilities.

Occupational Objectives

My short-term objective is to land a senior job where I can oversee initiatives aiming at enhancing corporate processes and fostering creativity. Long term, I want to specialize in business administration so that I may support initiatives for research and development pushing the envelope of corporate practices. I picture myself in academia or in a multinational corporation, where I can shape corporate management going forward.

Why Germany?

Germany leads in technology and creativity, hence I wish to study there. German universities, well-known for their outstanding research and academic standards, provide high-quality education from which I wish to gain advantage. Experiencing the rich and varied German culture will open my horizons and assist me to create a solid professional network. Germany's robust economy and growing tech industry will present lots of chances for networking and professional development. By surrounding Germany's energetic and dynamic surroundings, I hope to develop personally as well as professionally.

Summary

Finally, I think I would be perfect for the PFH MBA program. I am qualified for this program because of my academic background, professional experience, and great will to succeed in the business environment. The chance to be a member of PFH's vibrant academic community and fulfill my business administration career objectives excites me. German culture appeals to me; it provides inspiration for doing something fresh. I know that here I will learn something fresh and that, following good study from here, I will grow to be a well educated person.

Indeed,
